What is "Neighborhood Clean-Up?"

Twice a year, KSANA holds a "Neighborhood Clean-Up" in the Spring and Fall. Did you ever wonder what this event is? It's simple—a group of us from the neighborhood meet at the Balmoral Baptist Church at 9 am, bringing rakes, brooms, work gloves and plastic bags. We drive to different streets and get out and mainly clean debris from around street drains, so that stormwater won't back up due to leaves and garbage. We also pick up any trash we see, and go along the beautiful woods on McVay and pick up all trash along that wooded stretch.

Why not plan to join us for the next Clean-Up on Sat. Dec. 5 at 9 am? We usually are through in about 2 hours, and then we go have breakfast together somewhere. It's a great way to get some mild exercise AND meet your neighbors, and even more people just make it more fun. If you can't come, just be sure to pick up around your own house, and keep our neighborhood shining.

Ann Meier

Trunk Sale/Flea Market A Success!!!

Our first Trunk Sale Flea Market on Oct. 3 went great, and we definitely want to do it again next fall! We had about 30 sellers set up on tables in the Balmoral Baptist Church parking lot, most from our neighborhood and some from Greentrees, Vinings, etc. Even though the weather was cool, it didn't rain, and we had a good steady stream of customers from 8:00 am to about 2:30 pm, buying everything from china to movies to clothes to furniture to you-name-it. There was a variety!

The space and table rentals raised about $225.00 to benefit the KSANA Security Patrol, and the Balmoral Baptist Church had a table and got some good exposure too. All the sellers seemed to have a fun day, and I think next year we'll have even more sellers sign up. Look for this new event again next fall, and plan to sell your own items! Ann Meier
